Routine Of City's Daily Operation Contacts Many Citizens Thru Employees

Housed and headquartered on lots and acres and in building of hundreds of thousands of dollars value, using machinery equipment and vehicles of more hundreds of thousands of dollars by large group of paid and unpaid citizens our city government is a diversified business, requiring planning, management, cooperative and efficient directors to secure economical results for the tax dollar.

We're offering monthly re-licensing, and 25 from South Bay received, beginning Red Cross certificates.

Recreation
Roy Kimberly reports 734 officers played at the municipal course, and the course Rotary and Lions made their regular weekly meetings. Visitors contributed $60 in greens fees, in addition to the regular members.

Parks
Mrs. McDonald reports "there were fifteen reservations for the recreation room: wedding shower, birthday party, baby shower, church and family picnic, and there's a Spanish class every Tuesday night."

It is also the tenth year of a special summer program and no accidents. She hopes to have arts and craft reinstated in the program next year.

Library
Mrs. Bettie Harris, Librarian, reports that 944 borrowers used 1637 books, that 33 new books were received in the library.

Municipal Pool
Superior Casey Gregorich reports that 4,884 children, 553 adults visited the pool, and there was one pool party, with another cancelled on account of "gather. There were no complaints or injuries of a serious nature."

Fifty-one children between the ages of 4 and 9 years learned to swim; 22 children received their Red Cross beginners certificate.

New Students Must Register Early
New students in the area are urged to register early before the beginning of school, particularly grades nine thru twelve, Principal Nelson Morris announced today.

The office will be open daily from 8:30 to 4:30 for this pre-registration from today on, he said.

Regular registration for students who attended school here last year is Sept. 1, and school will start Sept. 6th. "To avoid unnecessary last minute confusion, new students should come in and get lined up before Sept. 1st registration date."

Hearing Set On Prices For Florida Sugar Cane

The United States Department of Agriculture today announced a public hearing on prices for the 1960 crop of Florida sugar cane will be held September 1, 1960 in the Sugarland Park Auditorium, Cleveland, Florida, beginning at 10:00 a.m.

To qualify for payments under the Sugar Act of 1948, as amended, producers who process sugar cane grown by other producers must pay prices for it determined as "fair and reasonable" by the Secretary.

To obtain best possible information, USDA requests that all interested persons appear at the hearing to present views and pertinent data.

Apparent Suicide Discovered Tuesday

When neighbors became disturbed at repeated ringing of the phone in the apartment of Miss Patricia McKelvey at 209 W. 12th St., they called the police from the proprietor to investigate, as her car was parked in front.

Chief Charles Goodlett and Sheriff's Deputy Frank Prevatt answered the call of Al Harris, neighbor, and along with Al Harris, A. Baker reported that all indications pointed to suicide.

Before coming to the Belle Glade Memorial Hospital in April, Miss McKelvey had a similar job at God Samaritan.

Miss McKelvey had answered a professional call at the hospital during the night and had returned home, subject to call need might arise at the hospital.

No information is available at present to indicate a cause for suicide.

Relatives in Shipshong, Pa., are being notified by friends in West Palm Beach for disposition of the body.

Miss McKelvey is a Lutheran by religious faith and had affiliated with that church locally.

The remains were shipped to Grove Funeral Home at West Palm Beach, Pa. Williams-Wetherington Funeral Home in charge of local arrangements. Survivors included her mother, Mrs. Mabel McKelvey.

N. C. (Nick) Jones Dies Tuesday A.M.

Nicholas Calhoun Jones, 68, of 201 S. W. Ave. C, resident of Belle Glade for 33 years, died Tuesday, Aug. 16, at the Veterans Hospital at Biloxi, Miss. He had been in ill health for many years.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones and son Wiley were spending the summer with his stepson, Larry W. Simmons, and wife at Biloxi, when death occurred.

A native of Waycross, Ga., he came to Belle Glade in 1922 and owned and operated Nick's Bar and Package Store on W. Ave. A. He was a member of the Elks Club, American Legion and a veteran of World War I.

Survivors include his wife Gertrude C. Jones, Belle Glade; two sons, Wiley, Belle Glade, and James N. Jones, Fort Mc Clellan, Ga.; a stepson, Larry W. Simmons, Biloxi, Miss.

Minelle, Simon, Paville Funeral Home, West Palm Beach, is in charge of arrangements. Graveside services will be held Friday afternoon at Hillcrest Park, West Palm Beach. Time has not been set.

Hospital Board "Holds The Line" With An Assessed Millage Of 3.2

The Belle Glade Memorial Hospital, under the Board of the Southwest Palm Beach County Hospital adopted and forwarded to the County tax assessor, a levy of 3.2 mills on the 1960-61 assessment to produce $108,418 in taxes for the year 1960-61. The hospital total budget is $337,000, with $228,582 income. $15,000 of this amount is from the County welfare cases.

So, the taxpayers must pay $153,418 towards the operation of the hospital, according to the budget.

"Holding the line" on millage is an ambition of the Board of Directors in this action, even though every single item of expense in the budget was increased over the previous year's figure, except the laundry. This item was reduced from $6,250 to $5,800 in reflection of the wisdom in installing a laundry unit at the hospital.

One item of $21,000 is for capital improvements, which includes a business machine installation, a major item each in two departments and miscellaneous needed improvements throughout the hospital.

The increased assessment over previous years bring in approximately $108,418 in taxes, an increase of the budget over last year's of around $34,000, with the reason being that the hospital represents an increase in anticipated earnings of hospital of $27,000.

In studying the budget, it was noted by this reporter that a salary report is now available, so that the Board may know any morning just what happened in the hospital's financial picture.

An item of interest to citizens is in the following story: regular us. One of the repeat customers of the hospital, as the story goes, is a woman who has a pound baby, at the expense of the hospital. It is customary to reward the mother with the names of the parents of a child born at the hospital, and how the mother has been a particular mother has had previously. The story in this case goes "father - undetermined." It is also reported that this "father - undetermined" appears on the record of this same area. The marriage license was offered in evidence, it is reported.

Do you think the Board at the hospital has problems?

Produce Merchandiser To Address FF & VA

Charles A. Ruth, Produce Merchandiser of Marsh Food- liners, Inc., Yorktown, Indiana, will give the keynote address at the 17th Annual Convention of the Florida Fruit and Vegetable Association, Sept. 27-29 in Miami, Beach, according to a letter from the Florida Fruit and Vegetable Association.

Phillips found, as I did on my recent Pan American Commission tour of South America, that people are people wherever you go. As individuals they have the same problems, the same handicaps, the same ambitions. Like us, they want to live at peace with their neighbors and the world. They are kindly, courteous, considerate and friendly. They do not understand international tensions, old wars and political bickering any more than we do. They are influenced by what they read in their newspapers, what they see on the television sets and what their political leaders scream at them from the news.

Under the spell of mob hysteria they may scream and yell "Yankee Go Home," burn or stamp on an American flag, picket an American Embassy. But alone in the security of their own environment they are still kind, courteous and considerate. Visit them in their homes as a friend and they can't do enough for you. They recognize you as another human being, a friend who is concerned with their affairs. You pet their dogs, take your copy of farm papers, express appreciation of a well prepared meal and they are thrilled, just as we are.

You, as an individual, are real, you are personal. There is no animosity toward you, if they have met you personally and have found that you are no different from them. You do not have horns, carry no pitchfork and certainly have no ambition to harm them or their 21st, City Hall at 10:15 a.m.

"Buenos Dias, Amigo" by Yankus Would Eliminate "Yankus Go Home"

(We heartily commend the suggestion in Russell Kay's column and especially so in this agricultural area. Transportation and communications have brought us "across the fence" neighbors).

In 1956 Bill Phillips, a reporter on the staff of the Miami Herald, helped arrange a "good-will tour" of the Caribbean and Latin American cities in which business men and city officials contacted citizens of the community, visited and made a sincere effort to understand their problems and encourage a better understanding between them.

Phillips found, as I did on my recent Pan American Commission tour of South America, that people are people wherever you go. As individuals they have the same problems, the same handicaps, the same ambitions. Like us, they want to live at peace with their neighbors and the world. "We must make our choice between economy and liberty, or profusion and servitude. If we run into such debts, we must be taxed in our meat and drink, in our necessities and in our comforts, in our labors and in our amusements.

"If we can prevent the government from wasting the labors of the people under the pretense of caring for them, they will be happy."

That was said by Thomas Jefferson, whose contribution to the American system of government was, perhaps, greater than that of any other single man. The language is archaic, but the principle is crystal clear. We have gone a grimly long distance in violating his doctrine. The question is whether we shall have the resolution, the strength, and the wisdom to change our national way before it is too late.

Willie Dee Drowned Apparently Choked
Emanuel "Chico" Valdez, a temporary guest of the city under the direction of "Captain Plafot" discovered a body floating in the canal while on a work party recently.

When identification was made it was found that Willie Dee Higgins had apparently inadvertently walked into the canal dreaming he was in a tub of cool refreshing chasers. Dee has been a guest of the city on numerous occasions for fighting wine and other bottled liquids, at some of his fellow guzzlers.

Skilled, Tough, Ready, Around Clock

Several vacancies exist for young men who are interested in joining an elite group of the United States Army, Sergeant Ron Rosser of the local Army recruiting office announced today. This group is called STRAC, or the Strategic Army Corps — SKILLED-TOUGH-READY-AROUND THE CLOCK. The group of fighting teams STRAC is forged into the finest combat group this country has ever developed. Men of STRAC are waiting and ready for a combat mission at a moment's notice.

Men assigned to STRAC are members of special battle groups, composed of Airborne Troops, Infantry and Armored Cavalry and Combat Command. Highly trained STRAC units will maneuver this year with modern missiles and rockets as well as conventional weapons.

"That's what I'm looking for in the Want Ads for a house with a smaller landlord!"

These maneuvers and tests will take place in areas ranging from the city wilderness of Alaska and the sands of the California desert to the Jungles of Panama.

Sgt. Rosser pointed out that enlistment for STRAC Division will have a choice of assignment to the 101st Airborne Division, 82d Airborne Division or the 4th Infantry Division. This choice of assignment will be guaranteed for the entire term of enlistment following completion of basic training at Fort Jackson, S.C. If an assignment to either of Airborne Divisions is desired, Airborne training must be completed before assignment is made to an Airborne Division.

Young men have the option of enlisting in these units under the Army's "Choose-It-Yourself" vocational training system in the Army Career Groups of Infantry, Armor and Field Artillery, and in an Army job, as a civilian job, men with good training move up fast, Sgt. Rosser pointed out.

Complete details on assignment to STRAC units, and detailed descriptions of Graduate Specialist Courses available to men in today's modern Army can be obtained without obligation from Sgt. Ron Rosser at his office, located at 319 South Dixie, West Palm Beach. Telephone: TE 2 8958.

Methodists to Hear Former Pastor at Aug. 21 Services

Announcement is made this week that Rev. H. E. Garrett, former pastor of Belle Glade Community Methodist Church, now serving in Jacksonville Beach, will be the guest speaker at both the morning and evening services at the church here on Aug. 21st.

Rev. and Mrs. Garrett and son Timothy arrived yesterday and will spend a week at the parsonage while visiting with old friends and enjoying lake fishing.

Beware of "Gyps" They're in Season

L. L. Price, Jr., executive director of the Belle Glade Chamber of Commerce, warned the public to be on guard against the leading schemes and practices which currently are exploiting the public. The text of Price's statement follows: "According to a feature article in the July issue of Changing Times, The Kipling Magazine, the top ten gyps of 1960, as measured by the number of complaints to the National Better Business Bureau, with which the Chamber is affiliated, are as follows:

1. Deceptive drug, device, cosmetic advertising.
2. Questionable franchise deals especially in vending machines.
3. Mail-order sale of dubious gadgets and garden supplies.
4. Unsound earn - money - at-home schemes.
5. Fictitious list and comparative prices.
6. High - pressure home - improvement schemes.
7. Bait ads.
8. Unordered - merchandise schemes, especially in charitable appeals.
9. Telephone sale of doubtful securities.
10. Photography schemes.

"Consumers can best be protected against the minority in business which engages in questionable practices," Price stated, "by dealing with firms of known reliability. If there is any doubt about it, appropriate inquiry should be made in advance."

A Modern Miracle Actual Tax Savings

The Florida Industrial Commission announces a tax reduction saving employees $465,000 annually on Workmen's Compensation insurance premiums.

Commission Chairman James T. Voeelle said the agency "can make that tax reduction as a result of economical operations and being able to cut unit costs of administration."

Just a year ago the Commission reduced the assessment paid by cities and other local government units for the administration of the Social Security program (Old Age and Survivors Insurance) as it applies to public employees in Florida. It also suspended entirely the half of one percent assessment charged against Workmen's Compensation insurance premiums for the purpose of building up a "Second Injury" Fund.

The action reported today cuts from $3 per $100 down to $2.50 per $100 the assessment that must be paid by insurance companies on all premiums they collect in sales of Workmen's Compensation insurance policies. The Commission is authorized under the law to impose an assessment up to 5 percent (a premium paid). The reduction just made reduces the assessment rate to the lowest in the twenty-five years since the Commission has been created. The "reduction also applies for business or groups of businesses which provide their own Workmen's Compensation coverage by being "self-insuring." With premiums anticipated at $72,342,000 in the year ahead, a three percent assessment would produce $2,185,270. The two-half percent assessment will produce some $361,212 less, representing the amount saved.

Voeelle said "We are very gratified to be able to make this reduction in the cost of the Workmen's Compensation insurance program in Florida. This should be pointed out that the efforts of our deputy commissioners over the State have cleared the controversies which arise between employers and employees over the application of the law when a worker is injured on-the-job has been a substantial factor in bringing about this reduction. In 1959 these deputies handled 11,709 cases at an average per case cost of $33.13, lowest in the past 13 years and a $10 per case reduction over that period. We are proud that our deputies have been organized to render such efficient service," Voeelle said. He said deputies handled an average of 650 cases each last year, compared to 243 per deputy in 1952.

Voeelle said it was his belief that even greater savings could be accomplished if the deputy commissioners could be put on permanent, civil service status. This change was sought in the 1959 Legislature but failed passage. The appointment and tenure of deputies now is subject to political patronage.

Voeelle noted that in 1959 approximately 33,000 employees had complied with the requirements of providing Workmen's Compensation "job-accident" insurance for their workers. Some 190,000 injuries were reported to the Commission last year. Seeing that the employers carry Workmen's Compensation insurance as required by law, that benefits are paid to injured workers and handling all the administrative details of this operation are functions of the Commission in the administration of the Workmen's Compensation Law.

Some 1,200,000 workers in the State last year were covered against possible accidental injury through the insurance carried by their employers.

"These trails would shake the cab off an ordinary truck... but not our Chevy"

Few trucks are subjected to the body-undoing beatings that are part of a day's work for this Chevy Series 60 pickup truck. It's owned by J. E. Fox, North Carolina logging contractor. As Bobby Fox, a partner in the business says, "Loaded with pulpwood, we drive over bumps and potholes you'd think would tear the truck to pieces. These trails would shake the cab off an ordinary truck, but not our Chevy. We can average an extra load a day... make $45 to $50 a day more with this Chevy than we can with the others."

In every weight class these Chevies are doing more work at less expense than trucks have ever done before. Drive one at your Chevrolet dealer's. It's an experience that could pay you big dividends.

*That 6-cylinder engine really performs, says Bobby Fox. "It's got the hugging punch we need in the woods and holds right along with a full load on the highway."
